A stylized illustration of a landscape. In the foreground, a large, dark tree trunk with a thick, gnarled base and a few branches extends from the right side towards the center. A grey rabbit with long ears is running from left to right in the middle ground. In the bottom left corner, a sunflower with a smiling face is partially visible. The background consists of rolling hills in shades of grey and white, with some white flowers on thin branches at the top. The overall style is simple and graphic.
